LENT 1980

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

LIVING IN THE LIGHT: A CELEBRATION OF COMMUNITY IN CHRIST

By now, most members of the Princeton Seminary community have received a copy of the 1980 devotional booklet for Lent, Living in the Light: A Celebration of Community in Christ. This booklet, which has been distributed to students through the Deacons and to faculty through the campus mail, is intended to set the tone for the Seminary's observance of Lent, 1980, through an organized program of prayer, worship, and study.

Lent is traditionally a time of both self-examination and concern with the affairs of the church. During the past year, we at Princeton Seminary have been questioning the quality of our life together as a community in Christ. It is especially appropriate, then, that we concern ourselves this Lent with the question of what it means to be a community in Christ--and of how we, as individuals responding to Christ's call, may best serve one another in Christian fellowship.

The Lenten program begins not with the issue of community itself, but with Christ, the center of Christian community. During the half-week from Ash Wednesday to the First Sunday in Lent, the focus of our devotion and study will be the person of Christ, who calls us together and whose journey to the cross and resurrection we commemorate during Lent. In the following week, from the First Sunday in Lent to the following Saturday, we will consider the role of Christ in "I-Thou relationships"--those personal relationships we have to other persons, especially those persons closest to us. The next week the focus widens to the family as Christian community, as we remember in our discussion and prayers the role of the family in an age of sweeping social changes, remembering especially those persons who have chosen lifestyles outside the traditional family structure. The fourth week of the Lenten program brings us close to home, to the Christian community at Princeton Seminary. During this week, the emphasis will be on building up this community in Christ, through many and varied ways of ministering to one another. In the fifth week, the focus widens further, to the Christian community in the nation. Important concerns for prayer and discussion this week will include the role of the church as a witness to the national government, and the role of the individual Christian as a member of this witnessing community. Finally, during Holy Week the focus will be at its widest. As we commemorate Christ's entry into Jerusalem and his Passion, we will consider the implications of these great events for the Christian community in the world. As Christ boldly entered Jerusalem, we too will boldly enter into a fellowship of prayer with the church universal, and will concern ourselves with how better to live a life of discipleship in a world grown heavy with suffering and need.

The Lenten devotional program is summarized in the following calendar:

CALENDAR FOR LENT

WEEK 1: February 20-23	Christ, The Center of Christian Community
WEEK 2: February 24-March 1	The I-Thou Relationship and Christian Community
WEEK 3: March 2-8	The Family As Christian Community
WEEK 4: March 9-15	The Christian Community At Princeton Seminary
(Spring Break: March 16-22)
WEEK 5: March 23-29	The Christian Community in the Nation
WEEK 6: March 30-April 5	The Christian Community in the World

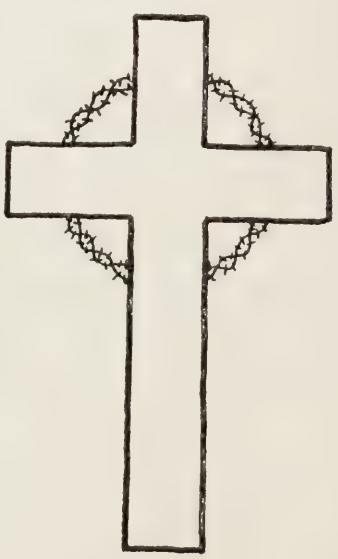
The program for Lent is designed to function on three levels:

1) on the individual level, through private devotion and prayer;

2) on the small-group level, as Deacons' groups and other campus groups meet weekly for prayer and study; and

3) on the community-wide level, through Daily Chapel, Sunday evening communion services, and the activities of campus organizations.

All members of the Seminary community are encouraged to become involved in the Lenten devotional program on all three levels. The devotional booklet is provided as a resource for such involvement. It contains a scripture reading for each day of Lent, as well as daily devotional meditations (written by members of the Seminary community) on each scripture reading. These meditations are intended primarily for personal devotions. For group Bible study, there is a Sunday scripture reading corresponding to each weekly theme; these are designed for use by Deacons' groups in their weekly meetings. Various quotations and discussion questions are also provided, as aids to these groups. The booklet is also intended as a resource for Daily Chapel. The daily scripture passages are recommended to chapel leaders as the basis for their services (though their use is optional). Whether or not they make use of the daily readings, chapel leaders are strongly encouraged to incorporate the weekly themes into their services in some way.



Bonhoeffer says, "Christianity means community through Jesus Christ and in Jesus Christ." This Lent, as we seek to strengthen the bonds of community that unite us, may we also grow closer to the Lord who calls all communities to him in joyful obedience.

Re: Marriage Enrichment Retreat
From: Retreat Committee / Mark and Chris Heaney

GREETINGS!

The Retreat Committee of Princeton Seminary invites you to take part in a Marriage Enrichment retreat to be held April 11-13, in Tennent Hall lounge.

WHO: Blair and Sandy Monie retreat leaders. Blair is a graduate of Princeton Seminary, M. Div., D. Min., and pastor of the Langhorne Presbyterian Church. Sandy is a psychiatric nurse, with training in marriage and family counseling. The Monies are certified (and talented) instructors in Marriage Enrichment and have led many retreats, including one last year for seminary couples.

WHAT: Marriage Enrichment is to be distinguished from Marriage Encounter. Its goals are educational, not therapeutic, and include: improving communication skills, learning how to be inclusive of one another, helping a couple to understand and deal with the role of feelings in their relationship, conflict management, and exploration of various forms of intimacy within marriage.

WHEN: Scheduling time for the Marriage Enrichment weekend is a difficult though important commitment, especially in the midst of busy schedules. The entire amount of time must be adhered to so that the experience can be both relaxing and fulfilling for all involved.

Friday, April 11:	7.00 pm (check-in) ---	10.00 pm
Saturday, April 12:	9.00 am ----------	9.00 pm
Sunday, April 13:	9.00 am ----------	5.00 pm

WHERE: Tennent Hall lounge

WHAT ELSE? There will be a small cost for meals if you wish to eat at the Campus Center. Please indicate if you need child care; it will be provided, if needed. The retreat cannot be held unless there is a MINIMUM OF SIX COUPLES. THE MAXIMUM IS FOURTEEN COUPLES. If you need housing on or near campus, please indicate, and we will make arrangements, if possible

We need to know as soon as possible, how many couples will be able to attend this weekend. We hope the above information will persuade you to plan to come. If so, please fill out the form below, detach it and send it either to Mark and Chris Heaney, 154 Erdman Hall, or to the Admissions Office (soon!).

PASCHAL VIGIL BREAKFAST:

Following the recital of our faith-story in the events of the Paschal Vigil, a breakfast (break-fast of Lent) will be held in the Campus Center dining hall. We hope that many will be able to bring home-baked bread to the service. Of the bread and wine you bring to to the Chapel before the service (someone will be designated to receive it) a part will be set aside for the Eucharist; the rest will be taken to the Campus Center for the Breakfast.

The breakfast will be pot-luck and is to remind one of the Promised Land. Thus the bread and honey, wine and milk, the fatted calf (various meats), etc. Please bring food of $1.50 to $2.00 in value to the Campus Center before going to the Chapel for the service. There will be persons there to receive this food between 7:15 and 8:00.

As the Lenten theme this year is "Community", why not use this as an opportunity to gather in your groups for food preparation. Plan an afternoon or evening of bread-baking, egg-dying, preparing potato salads, etc. sometime prior to the Vigil. Then bring your community efforts to the breakfast.

Keep in mind the following menu:

Honey	Potato Salads	Meats:	Cheeses
Bread	Egg Salads	cold cuts	Fruit breads
Wine	Deviled Eggs	cold lamb, ham	Nut breads
Yogurt	Colored Eggs	sausage (Kielbasa)	Cheesecakes

Tea, coffee, milk, fruit punch, paper plates, knives, forks, etc. will be provided at a cost of $1.00 per person.

PASCHAL VIGIL 1980

From sunset Thursday evening, April 3 to sunset on Sunday, April 6, we celebrate the saving events of our Lord's passion, death and resurrection. In the development of Christian worship, each of these events came to be celebrated on a separate day, but in the life of the early church, the whole of this Paschal Mystery was celebrated in one night - the night which "shines as bright as the day." It was a single liturgy which began on Saturday night and continued until the dawn of what we now call Easter Sunday. This was known as the great Paschal Vigil and was the most holy and joyful night of the entire year, proclaiming and celebrating the whole of salvation history and Christ's redemptive work. This liturgy is for all members of the household of faith and presents the grace of renewal which is at the heart of being raised to new life in Christ.

THE VIGIL AS STORY

The Paschal Vigil is a re-enactment of our faith-story. The re-enactment is historical, although the history is treated in a free manner. The Vigil begins with the affirmation of Christ in whom all things were created, moves through the Creation and Fall, through the Exodus, a focal point of the faith-story. The re-enactment then follows the story through the prophets into the second focal point of the celebration which is the incarnation of our Lord. Christ's death and resurrection permeates the enitre faith-journey as fulfillment and promise. Through the power of his resurrection, the gift of new life, and the flame of the Holy Spirit, the Church spreads throughout the world and the faith of it is made known and affirmed by countless martyrs and saints. We are caught up in that witness and are part of the flame spreading throughout the world, sharing, too, in the first-fruits of Christ's resurrection. In this faith-story we experience the passage from slavery to freedom, from sin to salvation, from pain to peace and from death to life. Christ makes us partakers of His Resurrection; therefore, at the end of the Paschal Vigil, we may joyfully proclaim: "Christ is risen and life reigns! Christ is risen and not one dead remains in the grave!"

THE VIGIL AS COMMITTMENT

The Vigil is a time for reassessment, for reconversion, for getting our bearings on our faith. How often we live our lives as if, in fact, Christ did not rise from the dead, as if this extraordinary event has no meaning for us at all. Somehow, we lose the "new life" that is given to us as a gift in Baptism. In the routine of daily life, we do not live constantly by "faith, hope and love" - that life to which Christ raised us. Once again, our lives become meaningless. And so the Vigil calls us to take stock of our lives, to help us recover the vision of the "new life", of entering into the demands of sacrifice and resurrection, into the glory of the Kingdom. It is through the liturgical life of the Church that we have revealed to us, something of "what God has prepared for those who love Him." And in the center of this liturgical life stands Pascha. It calls us to a committment of the Gospel, an identification with the Body of Christ, and a challenge to live a life that chooses the narrow way, but is the only way to true and genuine happiness.

There are many themes in the historic vigil: pilgrimage, the water of cleansing and deliverance, the bread (both of affliction and of heaven) and wine (both of suffering and of ennervation), the fire of purging and of enlightening, the tree of Eden and of eternity, life out of death, li ht out of darkness and all of the Christian reversals: the first being the last, the least greatest, the dead living, etc.

This year we are seeking to focus on pain to peace - the pain Jesus endured in bringing us to peace, the pain of our lives as human beings and the peace of those same lives in relationship to and in the light of Christ's resurrection.

Come to the Vigil, take stock of your life, partake of His Resurrection and of the grace of renewal which is at the heart of being raised to new life in Christ. Participate in the celebration which lays upon us the demand to become the glory and the faithfulness which we proclaim.

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY 08540

WILLIAM E. LAWDER
TREASURER

May 1, 1980

Dear Members of the Princeton Seminary Community and Residents of Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments:

Princeton Theological Seminary purchased the Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments, then known as Princeton-Windsor Apartments, in 1965 for the purpose of providing housing for married students. At the time of purchase, the Seminary did not immediately need all of the apartments for student use, and, therefore, the public tenants were invited to remain as part of the community. Over the years, other public tenants have joined the community, and for some time there have been 112 Seminary tenants and 88 public tenants.

In the summer of 1979, the Seminary received a bequest which provided funds for the maintenance of the apartments, and that, as you may know, is the reason the name was changed to Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments.

For several years the number of married students applying for entrance to Princeton Theological Seminary has increased and the applications for the Fall, 1980, have included a greater number of married students than ever before.

On April 23, 1980, Princeton Theological Seminary wrote to residents of the Charlotte Rachel Wilson community who had joined the community since 1970, to advise them that the Seminary needed additional apartments in the Fall of 1980 to provide housing for incoming married students.

The letter offered an incentive to anyone who would move by August 31, 1980. There was no mention that anyone had to move, and there was no indication that leases would not be renewed.

Let me reassure all tenants at the Charlotte Rachel Wilson Apartments that the Seminary has no intention of forcing anyone to leave the Charlotte Rachel Wilson community. The Seminary has enjoyed a most pleasant relationship with its public tenants and has every intention of continuing the relationship with those presently in residence.

As mentioned above, the Seminary does have pressing need for additional apartments for students. The Seminary, therefore, will not accept new public tenants. However, as leases expire, the option of taking advantage of the incentive offered by the Seminary will be extended to each tenant.

Let me assure you that the Seminary will renew the leases for those public tenants who wish to stay, providing that the tenant has complied with the terms of the lease during his or her tenancy.

Very truly yours,

William E. Lawder
